

Links and other readings

Contribute a link or suggest a reading by using Add Comment or by hitting Reply within an existing comment. To add a new topic to the forums, return here, click Add Topic, pose your question, then Save.

If you'd like to share a link to a blogpost, article, or other reading on the web that's relevant to our discussion of revising the English major, add a comment here and include the link. If you know of a print reading that's relevant and have a copy, give it to Michele, and, if it's short enough, we'll attach it here as a pdf.
